

Oilette

CHELSEA PENSIONERS. SER II.

"OILLETTE" (Regd.) Postcard 9282.

Raphael Tuck & Sons

LL10415

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE.

POSTKARTE.

By Appointment.

Chelsea Hospital is a handsome red-brick building designed by Wren for Charles II. — some say at the instigation of pretty Nell Gwynne — for the sheltering of old and invalid soldiers. The chapel is hung with Colours and French Eagles captured by the Army. Visitors are admitted to Service on Sundays at 11. a. m. and 8.30 p. m.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN
THE CHAPEL. AFTER THE ORIGINAL PAINTING BY JOHN A. HETZELMANS.

Postcarded in Ravatia.

CTPA 12.9 Nov 16/07